Description

Whether you're teaching a yoga flow or Pilates program in a studio or instructing athletes in a physical education class, students are sure to feel comfortable while exercising on this Dual-Density Workout Mat. Ideal for performing floor exercises, the mat makes it easy for yogis to rest in the lotus position and athletes to focus on push-ups and sit-ups. Users won't have to worry about discomfort caused by hard gym floors thanks to the dual-density foam construction, which provides an ideal amount of cushioning and support.

- Great for stretching, Pilates, yoga or floor exercises in studios, schools and gyms
- Multipurpose mat can be used by exercisers of all ages and skill levels
- Dual-density foam provides a cushioned surface for safe and comfortable exercising
- Tough polyethylene cover is durable enough for use in community fitness spaces
- Cut-out carry handle makes it easy to take the mat out at the beginning of class and store it at the end
